

St. Thomas Aquinas Pastoral Council

NOMINATION FORM

The Pastoral Council is an advisory council and a source of wisdom and guidance for our pastor. The members represent the interests and needs of the entire parish community and work together, with the pastor, to do what is best for the parish in light of Gospel and the Church's teachings.

Membership Qualifications

- Members should be baptized, fully initiated and practicing Catholic
- Willing to stay current on developments in the diocesan and universal church
- Committed to the teachings and implementation of the Second Vatican Council
- An active participant in the life of the parish; especially Mass and the Sacraments

Ideal Candidate Qualities

- Have a willingness to listen, speak honestly and work towards consensus
- Be flexible, open minded, and understand the value of various points of view
- Possess an ability to study, investigate and thoroughly examine pastoral matters
- Willing to commit their time, wisdom and talent towards the mission of the parish

Please give prayerful consideration to this ministry and place completed forms in the suggestion box in the Vestibule.
