Tips to guarantee children's safety around swimming pools

Drowning is the leading cause of injury-related death among children ages 1-4, and it is the third leading cause of unintentional injury-related death among children 19 and under. To avoid a tragedy, following are a few tips when watching children in or around the water: keep young children and weak swimmers within arm's reach of an adult; make sure more experienced swimmers are with a partner every time; choose an adult to be in or near the water carefully watching children; teach children how to swim. For more information, visit <https://www.safekids.org/poolsafety>.

Consejos para garantizar la seguridad de los niños en las piscinas

El ahogamiento es la principal causa de Muerte relacionada con lesiones entre los niños de 1 a 4 años de edad, y es la tercera causa principal de muerte no intencional relacionada con lesiones entre los niños de 19 años y menores. Para evitar una tragedia, los siguientes son algunos consejos cuando observe a los niños en el agua o cerca de ella: mantenga a los niños pequeños y a los nadadores débiles al alcance de la mano de un adulto; asegúrese de que los nadadores más experimentados estén siempre con un compañero; elija a un adulto para que esté en el agua o cerca de ella vigilando atentamente a los niños; enseñe a los niños a nadar. Para obtener más información, visite <https://www.safekids.org/poolsafety>.

The Priesthood and the Eucharist

“These two Sacraments were born together,” wrote St. John Paul II of the priesthood and the Eucharist, “and their destiny is indissolubly linked until the end of the world.”

The Eucharist is such a beautiful example of how God, conscious of our limitations, bends to meet us. He once came to us cloaked in the flesh, that we might recognize Him. Now He comes as the very means by which we nourish ourselves: food and drink, the most familiar and comforting thing in the world to us. How easy He makes it to fulfill his command that we become one with Him. How generous He is to make such a sacred thing also accessible.

We can say the same of the priesthood, and of the men He calls to its number. How generous of Him to make such an accessible thing — our sons, our brothers, our uncles, our cousins — sacred. How generous of Him to allow these human creations — who share in our own faults — to be the means through which He comes to us in the Eucharist.

Without the Eucharist, we would have no eternal life. Without priests, we would have no Eucharist. On this, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, let’s give thanks for our priests, and redouble our prayers that God will send us good and holy ones — manna from Heaven in our wandering exile.

“Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day.” — John 6:54

El Sacerdocio y la Eucaristía

“Estos dos Sacramentos nacieron juntos,” escribió San Juan Pablo II sobre el sacerdocio y la Eucaristía, “y su destino está indisolublemente unido hasta el fin del mundo.”

La Eucaristía es un ejemplo tan hermoso de cómo Dios, consciente de nuestras limitaciones, se inclina a nuestro encuentro. Una vez vino a nosotros envuelto en la carne, para que podamos reconocerlo. Ahora viene como el medio por el cual nos alimentamos: comida y bebida, lo más familiar y reconfortante del mundo para nosotros. Cuán fácil hace que cumplamos su mandato de que seamos uno con Él. Cuán generoso es Él al hacer accesible también algo tan sagrado.

Lo mismo podemos decir del sacerdocio y de los hombres a los que llama a su número. Qué generoso de su parte hacer algo tan accesible: nuestros hijos, nuestros hermanos, nuestros tíos, nuestros primos, sagrados. Cuán generoso de su parte al permitir que estas creaciones humanas, que comparten nuestras propias faltas, sean el medio a través del cual Él viene a nosotros en la Eucaristía.

Sin la Eucaristía, no tendríamos vida eterna. Sin sacerdotes, no tendríamos Eucaristía. En esta solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo, demos gracias por nuestros sacerdotes y redoblemos nuestras oraciones para que Dios nos envíe buenos y santos, maná del cielo en nuestro exilio errante.

“El que come mi carne y bebe mi sangre, tiene vida eterna y yo lo resucitaré en el último día.” — Juan 6:54

Prayer of Thanksgiving for our priests:

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. In the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading: At the end of their forty-year journey in the desert, Moses instructs the Israelites not to forget how God taught them to depend on Him alone. How might you remind yourself of this important lesson in life?

Second Reading: Paul teaches the Corinthians that through the body and blood of Christ, the community of believers are “one body.” Who in your life needs to hear this unifying message?

Gospel: Jesus teaches the crowds that through his body and blood believers will obtain eternal life and be raised on the last day. This is the core of our Catholic belief about Jesus. How do you think we can best celebrate this gift of eternal life?

Next Sunday: Ex 19:2-6a/Ps 100:1-2, 3, 5 (3c)/Rom 5:6-11/Mt 9:36—10:8

REFLEXIONAR Y RESPONDER

Primera Lectura: Al final de su trayecto de cuarenta años por el desierto, Moisés instruye a los israelitas a no olvidar cómo Dios les enseñó a depender solo de Él. ¿Cómo podrías recordarte a ti mismo esta importante lección de vida?

Segunda Lectura: Pablo enseña a los corintios que, a través del cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo, la comunidad de creyentes es “un solo cuerpo.” ¿Quién en tu vida necesita escuchar este mensaje unificador?

Evangelio: Jesús enseña a las multitudes que a través de su cuerpo y sangre los creyentes obtendrán la vida eterna y resucitarán en el último día. Este es el núcleo de nuestra creencia católica acerca de Jesús. ¿Cómo crees que podemos celebrar mejor este don de la vida eterna?

Have a great week everybody!
