GOD'S WORD FOR CHILDREN

God let Adam name all the animals.
What fun that must have been!
Count each kind of animal and then write that number at the bottom.

Where do we see these types of animals? Circle that place.

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

People brought their boys and girls to Jesus so he could bless them.

The disciples tried to discourage them. But Jesus said,
"Let the children come to me" (Mark 10:14).

Jesus loves every child. And he loves you!

Use each of these letters once to complete the spelling of some boys' and girls' names.

DID YOU KNOW?

October 2-3

Talking about stranger danger the idea of "stranger danger" is often too broad a concept for children to grasp as not all strangers are dangerous, and children will always be meeting new people and on occasion may need to ask a stranger for help. Instead of issuing a blanket warning, try these tips for keeping children safe around people they do not know. If an unknown adult approaches them, have them check with a parent or known and trusted adult before engaging in conversation. This can be as simple as a quick look to the parent followed by a nod indicating that it is okay to interact. As an adult yourself, you can set a good example by talking first to parents, then to children in their care. This helps your own children see how trustworthy adults engage with children around their parents and helps them learn caution for adults who do not act in the same way. For more tips, request the VIRTUS® article "Communication Tip No. 5: Stranger Danger" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

¿LO SABÍA

Hablar del peligro de los extraños

La idea de "peligro de un extraño" es a menudo un concepto demasiado amplio para que los niños la comprendan, ya que no todos los extraños son peligrosos y los niños siempre conocerán gente nueva y, en ocasiones, es posible que necesiten pedir ayuda a un extraño. En lugar de emitir una advertencia general, pruebe estos consejos para mantener seguros a los niños cuando están cerca de personas que no conocen. Si un adulto desconocido se les acerca, pídale que le pregunten a uno de sus padres o a un adulto conocido y de confianza si puede entablar una conversación con esa persona. Esto puede ser tan simple como una mirada rápida a los padres seguida de un asentimiento que indica que está bien interactuar. Usted mismo, como adulto, puede dar un buen ejemplo hablando primero con los padres de familia y luego con los niños bajo su cuidado. Esto ayuda a sus propios hijos a ver cómo los adultos confiables se relacionan con los niños alrededor de sus padres y les ayuda a aprender a ser cautelosos con los adultos que no actúan de la misma manera. Para obtener más consejos, solicite el artículo de VIRTUS® "Communication Tip No. 5: Stranger Danger" (Consejo de comunicación No. 5: Peligro de extraños" en lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
