October 23-24

Have a spooky and safe Halloween With Halloween right around the corner, here are a few tips to keep your holiday safe and fun! Before they go trick-or-treating, talk with your children about safety and set the ground rules. Young children should always trick or treat with an adult. Join up with friends or family and stick to neighborhoods you know, with houses that are lit and ready for trick or treaters. Stay on sidewalks when possible, and if children have a hard time walking between houses, make a game of it — take big steps, or march from house to house. For more information, please visit [https://

¿LO SABÍA

23-24 de octubre

Que tengas un Halloween espeluznante y Seguro ¡Con Halloween a la vuelta de la esquina, aquí hay algunos consejos para mantener sus vacaciones seguras y divertidas! Antes de que vayan a pedir dulces, hable con sus hijos sobre la seguridad y establezca las reglas básicas. Los niños pequeños siempre deben pedir dulces con un adulto. Únase a amigos o familiares y quédese en los vecindarios que conoce, con casas iluminadas y listas para la repartición de dulces. Permanezca en las aceras cuando sea posible, y si los niños tienen dificultades para caminar entre las casas, conviértalo en un juego: dé pasos grandes como si usted fuera un gigante o dé pasos como de una marcha mientras va de casa en casa. Para

God's Word for Children

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

It's fun and rewarding to reach our goals!
But what does Psalm 105:4 tell us to seek?
To find the answer, follow these instructions.

Notice there are three sections. In each section connect the top dots down to the dots right below them. Some dots are halfway down - connect them to the dots below also.

FEAST OF FAITH The Sound of Communion

The priest receives Holy Communion, and then there is movement, a bustle of activity, as we prepare to join the Communion procession. This holy meal does not happen in silence! Instead, we sing together even as we rise and move forward in procession to the altar. We must change and move to receive the Eucharist, and fittingly so, since the Eucharist is transformative—it demands action of us, internal as well as external. We do not receive the sacrament in silence, but with a dialogue that is also a profession of faith: “The Body of Christ.” “Amen.” “The Blood of Christ.” “Amen.” We acknowledge the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist with our “Amen” of faith, but more, our “Amen” is also a prayer that we may become what we receive, the Body of Christ, living and active in the world. We receive him not that he may become a part of us, but that we may become a part of him—part, too, of all the others who receive him, the whole communion of believers.

FIESTA DE LA FE La antigua alianza

En la tradición bíblica, Dios se hace parte de la alianza como protector y salvaguardia de la misma. Es una alianza sencilla y poderosa: seré tu Dios y tú serás mi pueblo (Oseas 2:25). La alianza se daba por participación mutua, a partir de ella se es familia, se es uno y se corre la misma suerte. Se camina unidos hasta el final. Aunque esta alianza es entre Dios y el pueblo, no implica la misma categoría de ambas partes, tampoco igualdad de deberes, no es relación de súbdito con inferior. Dios siempre es fiel a su alianza; nosotros, no siempre. Esta es la relación de Dios con un pueblo concreto, con Israel. La alianza en sí misma es una acción sagrada y se castiga a los agresores. Se lleva a cabo mediante un juramento y quien no la cumpla, paga sus propias consecuencias. Ambas partes, plenamente libres, se adueñan de la alianza al formarla. Los ritos con los que esta alianza se marca son muy profundos: se corta la piel para derramar sangre, se mezcla y se bebe la sangre de ambas partes, se sumergen las manos en un recipiente lleno de sangre para simbolizar que se es uno solo.
