MAKING ALL THINGS NEW

Although we are five full weeks into the celebration of Easter, today's readings focus on newness. Our Easter food leftovers may be long gone, but the readings insist on every moment's freshness in the risen Jesus. The Acts of the Apostles depicts Paul and Barnabas reflecting on all the innovative work that God has done with them. They have traveled hundreds of miles, introducing faith in Jesus Christ to all who listen, even Gentiles. For the dutiful Jewish scholar Paul, preaching to Gentiles is a completely unique development. Jesus calls Paul, and us, not to be afraid of new challenges: as John the Evangelist reports in Revelation, Jesus promises to "make all things new." In the Gospel reading, Jesus even gives us a new commandment. The Hebrew Scriptures overflow with commandments, but Jesus knows we need one more, perfect mission: "love one another."

Behold, I make all things new.

THE GIFT

The artist is nothing without the gift, but the gift is nothing without work.

DWELLING PLACE

God dwells wherever we let God in.

ST THOMAS AQUINAS CHURCH

Note from Fr Kirk
May 15, 2022

In August of 2021, I was approached by a member of our parish community with a remarkable offer: to fund the creation and installation of sixteen stained glass windows for the north and south walls of our church.

After a couple of initial meetings, we decided to move the project forward with nationally renowned local glass artist Susan Stinsmuelhen-Amend. We also brought in Los Angeles based Judson Studios to consult on the actual fabrication of windows. Four generations of the Judson family have been creating glass art for over 100 years and we feel blessed to have their commitment to see this commission through to completion. These past months we have worked together to refine concepts, techniques and designs and have brought in select members of the parish to view work in progress and offer feedback. We are now ready to present the project to the entire parish, and invite you to join us on Sunday, May 22 at 1PM in the church to see the result of our efforts these past months. Susan will accompany me in presenting the project and you will have to opportunity to meet and talk with her about the process. I hope to see you all there.

Emergency tips for preschoolers

Even at a young age, children are capable of much more than we might believe, including the development of certain skills that could keep them safe in an emergency. As soon as your child is able to distinguish numbers, teach them how to dial 9-1-1 in case of an emergency. Go over safety exits and how to open or unlock doors and windows on the ground floor if they need to get out of the house. MADE FOR EACH OTHER

We are introduced to the book of Revelation's great concluding vision in our second reading. The completion of God's project of salvation is described as a new Jerusalem coming from heaven, to form a new heaven and new earth. The image of a marriage articulates this vision, in which the two sides of God's good creation, earth and heaven, are joined in a final union. Earth (the physical universe) will not be destroyed, but instead be fully renewed.

This vision rejects any notion that the physical and the spiritual are ultimately separate and opposed to each other. It rejects the idea that heaven is an escape from a prison of earthly life. Like a marriage partnership, these two sides of reality are fundamentally made for each other. Life in heaven and life on earth are quite different now. But the life of faith, here and now, offers a foretaste of God's promised future.

The new heaven and new earth described by Revelation is where God will dwell fully among God's beloved creation. God's reign will be a reign of love, where death will be no more. In Revelation, death fuels fear and resentment, which turn to cycles of violence and destruction, and to social systems that sustain injustice. These cycles of death will one day be broken by love. In God's reign of love, new energies of creativity and human fulfillment can be released.

When God says "behold, I make all things new," God is speaking of both the present and the future. God is working now, in every person and community, in every part of creation, to bring about this new reality. We the Church must learn to see God working in our lives, our workplaces, and our neighborhoods, breaking cycles of death. We are summoned to join in what God is doing, releasing new energies of love, anticipating the final fulfillment of God's work.

HACER NUEVAS TODAS LAS COSAS

Aunque ya llevamos cinco semanas completas de celebración de la Pascua, las lecturas de hoy se orientan en la novedad. Puede que lo que sobró de la comida de Pascua ya se haya terminado desde hace tiempo, pero las lecturas insisten en la frescura de cada momento de Jesús resucitado. El libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles describen a Pablo y a Bernabé reflexionando sobre todo el trabajo innovador que Dios ha hecho con ellos. Ya han recorrido cientos de millas, presentado la fe en Jesucristo a todos los que los escuchan, incluso a los gentiles. Para el judío erudito y obediente de Pablo, la predicación a los gentiles es un hecho completamente único. Jesús llama a Pablo, y a nosotros, a no tener miedo de los nuevos retos: como informa el evangelista Juan en el libro del Apocalipsis, Jesús promete "hacer nuevas todas las cosas". En la lectura del Evangelio, Jesús nos da incluso un mandamiento nuevo. Las Escrituras hebreas tienen un exceso de mandamientos, pero Jesús sabe que necesitamos uno más, una misión perfecta "amarnos los unos a los otros".

En agosto de 2021, un miembro de nuestra comunidad parroquial se me acercó con una oferta notable: financiar la creación e instalación de dieciséis vidrieras para las paredes norte y sur de nuestra iglesia. Después de un par de reuniones iniciales, decidimos llevar adelante el proyecto con la artista de vidrio local de renombre nacional Susan Stinsmuelhen-Amend. También trajimos a Judson Studios, con sede en Los Ángeles, para consultar sobre la fabricación real de ventanas. Cuatro generaciones de la familia Judson han estado creando arte en vidrio durante más de 100 años y nos sentimos bendecidos de tener su compromiso de llevar esta comisión hasta su finalización. Estos últimos meses hemos trabajado juntos para refinar conceptos, técnicas y diseños y hemos traído a miembros selectos de la parroquia para ver el trabajo en progreso y ofrecer comentarios. Ahora estamos listos para presentar el proyecto a toda la parroquia, y los invitamos a unirse a nosotros el domingo 22 de mayo a la 1PM en la iglesia para ver el resultado de nuestros esfuerzos en los últimos meses. Susan me acompañará en la presentación del proyecto y tendrás la oportunidad de conocerla y hablar con ella sobre el proceso. Espero verlos a todos allí.

Consejos de emergencia para niños en edad preescolar
Incluso a una edad temprana, los niños son capaces de mucho más de lo que creemos, incluido el desarrollo de ciertas habilidades que podrían mantenerlos a salvo en una emergencia. Tan pronto como su hijo pueda distinguir los números, enséñele cómo marcar el 9-1-1 en caso de emergencia. Repase las salidas de seguridad y cómo abrir o desbloquear puertas y ventanas en la planta baja si necesitan salir de la casa. Today's Readings: Acts 14:21-27; Ps 145:8-9, 10-11, 12-13;
Rev 21:1-5a; Jn 13:31-33a, 34-35

15 de mayo de 2022 Quinto Domingo de Pascua

En la segunda lectura se nos presenta la gran visión final del libro del Apocalipsis. La culminación del proyecto de salvación de Dios se describe como una nueva Jerusalén que viene del cielo, para formar un cielo nuevo y una tierra nueva. La imagen de un matrimonio articula esta visión, en la que las dos partes de la buena creación de Dios, la tierra y el cielo, se unen en una unión final. La tierra (el universo físico) no se destruirá, sino que se renovará por completo.

Esta visión rechaza cualquier noción de que lo físico y lo espiritual están en última instancia separados y opuestos entre sí. Rechaza la idea de que el cielo sea una escapatoria de la prisión de la vida terrenal. Al igual que un matrimonio, estas dos partes de la realidad están hechas fundamentalmente la una para la otra. La vida en el cielo y la vida en la tierra son muy diferentes ahora. Pero la vida de fe, aquí y ahora, ofrece un anticipo del futuro prometido por Dios.

TODAS LAS COSAS NUEVAS

El cielo nuevo cielo y la tierra nueva descritos por el Apocalipsis es donde Dios habitará plenamente entre su amada creación. El reino de Dios será un reino de amor, donde la muerte ya no existirá. En el Apocalipsis, la muerte alimenta el miedo y el resentimiento, que se convierten en ciclos de violencia y destrucción, y en sistemas sociales que mantienen la injusticia. Estos ciclos de muerte se romperán un día por el amor. En el reino de amor de Dios, se podrán liberar nuevas energías de creatividad y realización humana.

Cuando Dios dice "he aquí que hago nuevas todas las cosas", está hablando tanto del presente como del futuro. Dios está trabajando ahora, en cada persona y comunidad, en cada parte de la creación, para llevar a cabo esta nueva realidad. Nosotros, la Iglesia, debemos aprender a ver a Dios trabajando en nuestras vidas, en nuestros lugares de trabajo y en nuestros barrios, rompiendo los ciclos de muerte. Estamos llamados a unirnos a lo que Dios está haciendo, liberando nuevas energías de amor, anticipando el cumplimiento final de la obra de Dios.
