Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

As always in Ordinary Time, today's Old Testament reading sets the stage for the Gospel. God, who in Jesus will "rebuken the wind" and "command the sea to be still" (Mark 4:39), "addresses Job out of the storm" (Job 38:1), speaking to the turmoil in Job's heart, calling to mind the primal chaos of creation's untamed sea, reminding Job that God's mighty word then was enough to command order and bring forth life. In today's Gospel, the disciples' fear, even near despair, takes center stage. Are any of us strangers to such emotions? Squall-force winds buffet their boat, waves break over it, and Jesus might as well not be there. Mark's account is especially grim. Alone among the evangelists, he tells us that Jesus is in the stern, the very back of the boat, not just asleep—sound asleep! Only Mark adds the detail, "on a cushion" (4:38).

AWAKEN CHRIST

Though we welcome Jesus in Word and Eucharist Sunday after Sunday, haven't we all, from time to time, experienced Jesus' "real absence"? This personal application should comfort us, as it has generations of disciples before us. Though the "boat" is, primarily, a symbol of the Church, never forsaken by Christ, carried safely across time's stormy waters, Saint Augustine preaching on this very Gospel sixteen hundred years ago noted that, since each of us is a temple of God, each one's heart is a sailing boat. Consider any temptation, says Augustine, as "the wind, the surging of the sea," and do what the disciples did: wake up Christ, "the sleeper in your heart," by recalling his words and commands. Then be like the wind and the sea: "The sea obeys him, the wind is still." Whenever emotions make our hearts turbulent, whenever Christ seems absent or at least asleep, "let us not despair but awaken Christ, so that we may sail in quiet waters, and reach at last our heavenly homeland."

Today's Readings: Jb 38:1, 8–11; Ps 107:23–26, 28–31;
2 Cor 5:14–17; Mk 4:35–41

Duodécimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Como siempre en el Tiempo Ordinario, las lecturas de hoy del Antiguo Testamento preparan el escenario para el Evangelio. Dios que, en Jesús, "reprime el viento" y "mandará calmar el mar" (Marcos 4:39), "se dirige a Job desde la tormenta" (Job 38:1), hablando desde la confusión de su corazón, recordando a Job que entonces la Palabra poderosa de Dios bastaba para con un orden devolver la vida. En el Evangelio de hoy, el miedo de los discípulos, incluso su desesperación, es el protagonista. ¿Acaso alguno de nosotros es ajeno a esas emociones? Los vientos de la borrasca golpean la barca, las olas rompen sobre ella y Jesús podría no estar ahí. El relato de Marcos es particularmente triste. Solo entre los evangelistas, él nos cuenta que Jesús está en la popa, en la parte trasera de la barca, y no solo dormido, sino que está profundamente dormido. Únicamente Marcos añade el detalle "sobre un cojín" (4:38).

DESPERTAR A CRISTO

Aunque acojamos a Jesús en la Palabra y la Eucaristía domingo tras domingo, ¿acaso no nos ha pasado a todos que experimentamos, de vez en cuando, la "ausencia real" de Jesús? Esta experiencia personal debería reconfortarnos, como así ha sucedido con generaciones de discípulos antes que nosotros. Aunque ante todo la barca es un símbolo de la Iglesia, nunca abandonada por Cristo, llevada con seguridad a través de las aguas tormentosas del tiempo, san Agustín al predicar sobre este mismo Evangelio hace mil seiscientos años, señaló que, puesto que cada uno de nosotros es un templo de Dios, el corazón de cada uno es una barca de vela. San Agustín dice: considera cualquier tentación como "el viento, el oleaje del mar", y haz lo que hicieron los discípulos, despierta a Cristo, "el durmiente en tu corazón", recordando sus palabras y mandamientos. Luego sé como el viento y el mar: "El mar lo obedece, el viento está tranquilo". Siempre que las emociones hagan turbulento nuestro corazón, siempre que Cristo parezca ausente o al menos dormido, "no nos desesperemos, sino despertemos a Cristo, para que podamos navegar en aguas tranquilas, y llegar por fin a nuestra patria celestial".

Lecturas de hoy: Job 38:1, 8–11; Sal 107 (106):23–26, 28–31;
2 Cor 5:14–17; Mc 4:35–41

Volunteers Needed for Collections Assistance

The parish is in immediate need of several volunteers to assist with counting and documenting plate collections from all services. This process requires a commitment of approximately 1 hour per week and basic math skills. However, with the assistance of multiple volunteers a schedule can be established where this commitment may only be once a month or possibly less. This process has been overseen by three dedicated parishioners (Oscar Melendez, Bill Brannan, and Wayne Lattimer) for many years. St. Thomas Aquinas is very grateful for their years of service and dedication to this effort. They will continue to be involved as we recruit others to assist the parish with this vital service.

For more information and to volunteer, please contact the parish office at 805-646-4338 (either Parish Secretary Kathleen Lansing- extension 101 or Finance Council Chair, Dan Reid- extension 102).

Se necesitan voluntarios para la asistencia de cobros

La parroquia está en necesidad inmediata de varios voluntarios para ayudar con el conteo y la documentación de las colecciones de placas de todos los servicios. Este proceso requiere un compromiso de aproximadamente 1 hora por semana y habilidades matemáticas básicas. Sin embargo, con la ayuda de múltiples voluntarios se puede establecer un horario donde este compromiso solo puede ser una vez al mes o posiblemente menos. Este proceso ha sido supervisado por tres feligreses dedicados (Oscar Meléndez, Bill Brannan y Wayne Lattimer) durante muchos años. Santo Tomás de Aquino está muy agradecido por sus años de servicio y dedicación a este esfuerzo. Continuarán participando a medida que reclutamos a otros para ayudar a la parroquia con este servicio vital.

Para obtener más información y ser voluntario, comuníquese con la oficina parroquial al 805-646-4338 (ya sea la Secretaria Parroquial Kathleen Lansing, extensión 101, o el Presidente del Consejo de Finanzas, Dan Reid, extensión 102).

St. Thomas Aquinas Financial Status- May 2021

	Monthly (April 2021)	Fiscal Year 20/21 (7/1/2020- 4/30/2021)
Unrestricted Income*	$37,323	$371,990
Restricted Income	$2,401	$154,209
Expenses	$46,513	$419,803
Net	-$6,789	$106,396

* Unrestricted income includes: plate and envelope collections, online giving, donations, fundraisers, etc.

 Restricted income includes: The Building Fund, Religious Education, and donations with specific use designations by the donor.

The table above indicates the financial status through April 30, 2021 and represents annual totals for Fiscal Year 20/21. The Parish was blessed to receive a large donation in September from the estate of a previous parishioner. However, this donation is earmarked for the support of evangelization and is not available to be utilized for operational expenses and the positive balance year to date is attributed to this donation.

This report represents 83.3% of the 20/21 Fiscal Year. As reported in our last financial report update, envelopes, plate and online collections are slightly higher than last Fiscal Year (19/20). However, income from all special services such as Baptisms, Marriages, Religious Education, etc. is significantly lower than last Fiscal Year. In addition, although loosening COVID restrictions for in-person events is generating more interest in use of parish facilities, these bookings are for next Fiscal Year.

Thanks to generous ongoing contributions to the Building Fund, we have been able to do needed maintenance around the parish facilities such as complete remodel of the Youth Room, repainting in the chapel and extensive cleaning of the Aquinas Hall in preparation for event rentals.

Parish Administration realizes these are very challenging times, but if it is possible to increase your contributions, even slightly, this will greatly assist the Parish meet its expenses and reduce the need for withdrawals from the Parish Contingency Fund.

God Bless

GOD'S WORD FOR CHILDREN

While Jesus was asleep in a boat, a ferocious wind came up and sent waves crashing over the sides. The disciples were frightened and woke him up. Draw a circle around what Jesus said. You can read the story in your Bible at Mark 4:35-41.

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Paul told the Corinthians that when we are in Christ, we become "a new creation" (2 Corinthians 5:17). See if you can change one letter of each word below, and then change one letter again to spell new. Write your new words onto the blanks.

FEAST OF FAITHThe Collection: A Privilege

As the altar is prepared for the celebration of the Eucharist, the collection is taken up. In the early church, this part of the Mass must have been something to behold, as the people suddenly began to move, bringing forward to the deacons and priests freshly-baked bread and fine wine. Then, after the Eucharistic Prayer, that same community came forward again in the Communion procession, and they received back the very gifts they had given, now transformed into something infinitely more precious than bread and wine: the very Body and Blood of Christ.

Beginning around the eleventh century, it became the custom for people to present money instead of bread and wine, and the procession of the faithful gradually disappeared (it survives in the liturgy of Holy Thursday). But the meaning is the same. We continue to bring the fruit of our labors and to offer them freely to God. And God continues to transform them into Christ. It is through our generous sharing of time, talent, and treasure that our parishes can preach the gospel, reach out to the sick and the imprisoned, and celebrate the sacraments.

FIESTA DE LA FEPan y vino

Presentamos pan y vino como ofrenda porque son elementos que encierran la vida en sí mismos. No son un producto único, sino el resultado de un proceso. En sí mismos, son simbólicos del misterio pascual que celebra la Eucaristía; hay un proceso de muerte y vida. El grano de trigo ha muerto, ha dado fruto, se ha triturado y ahora es pan para que todos coman. El vino ha salido de las parras generosas, trae en sí la espera del tiempo, la madurez de la uva, la extracción del jugo, la fermentación... hay un proceso de vida para llegar no sólo al vino, sino a un buen vino; a un vino que es la sangre misma de la vida, que dentro de sí lleva ya el aspecto festivo de algo que se celebra y se comparte. Es más que una bebida relajante o sabrosa, es la bebida sagrada porque en ella se acompaña una promesa, se marca un momento, se vive un juramento. Comer y beber siempre han sido un gesto de solidaridad entre hombres y mujeres; se come y bebe con quien se tiene confianza, con quien se es familia, con quien se espera re-crear la propia vida a partir de algo que va más allá de nosotros mismos.

DID YOU KNOW?

June 19-20

Using the "What If" game to raise problem-solving children
The "What If" game is a great way to walk your children through potential scenarios, and work with them to find the best solutions. Ask your children about "what if" scenarios, mixing silly questions with real world ones to keep them engaged and thinking, like "What if you had super powers?" and "What if a stranger asked you to go somewhere with him at the mall?" You can empower your children with problem-solving skills that will keep them safe even when you can't be there to protect them. For more information, visit <https://www.d2l.org/what-if-game/>.

¿LO SABÍA

Uso del juego "¿Y si ...?" para criar niños que resuelven Problemas El juego "¿Qué pasaría si ...?" es una excelente manera de guiar a sus hijos a través de posibles escenarios y trabajar con ellos para encontrar las mejores soluciones. Pregúntele a sus hijos sobre escenarios de "qué pasaría si", mezclando preguntas tontas con preguntas del mundo real para mantenerlos interesados y pensando. Por ejemplo, "¿Y si tuvieras superpoderes?" o "¿Qué pasa si un extraño te pide que vayas a algún lugar con él en el centro comercial?" Usted puede capacitar a sus hijos con habilidades para resolver problemas que los mantendrán seguros, incluso cuando usted no pueda estar allí para protegerlos. Para obtener más información, visite <https://www.d2l.org/what-if-game/>.
