Fr. Kirk's Message

November 1, 2020

Many of you were able to experience one or both of the liturgies connected to the priestly ordination of Fr. Barnaby Johns, OSA last weekend. Both the Mass of Ordination at Villanova Prep on Saturday, and the Mass of Thanksgiving right here at St. Thomas on Sunday reminded me how much I've missed coming together to celebrate as a community. If any of you missed either of these celebrations and would like to have a look, both Masses are available for viewing at www.californiaaugustinians.org.

On the topic of coming together to celebrate as a community, I'm happy to remind you all that we will be gathering for a bilingual celebration of the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed along with a Prayer of Healing and Help at 7PM on Monday, November 2. Please consider joining us as we gather to remember those who have gone before us in prayer and fellowship. The celebration will begin with Mass at 7PM and continue with light refreshments afterward—all outdoors.

Looking ahead, I'm happy to announce that we will be offering our traditional Thanksgiving Day meal later this month. More details as to how we will adapt this celebration to conform to current safety protocols will be shared in the coming weeks, but know that we will indeed be able to come together to break bread and give thanks.

God's peace,
Fr. Kirk

The Solemnity of All Saints

See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God.
1 John 3:1

SAINTS AND SINNERS

The only difference between the saint and the sinner is that every saint has a past, and every sinner has a future.

Please pray for the happy repose of the souls of,
Benjamin Corralejo Sr.

*Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.*

Amen.

Please keep Ben Sr. and his wife Teresa and their family in your daily prayers.

Mensaje del P. Kirk

1 de Noviembre de 2020

Muchos de ustedes pudieron experimentar una o ambas liturgias relacionadas con la ordenación sacerdotal del P. Barnaby Johns, OSA el fin de semana pasado. Tanto la Misa de Ordenación en Villanova Prep el sábado, como la Misa de Acción de Gracias aquí en Santo Tomás el domingo me recordaron lo mucho que me he perdido para celebrar como comunidad. Si alguno de ustedes se perdió cualquiera de estas celebraciones y le gustaría echar un vistazo, ambas Misas están disponibles para su visualización en www.californiaaugustinians.org.

Sobre el tema de reunirnos para celebrar como comunidad, me complace recordarles a todos que nos reuniremos para una celebración bilingüe de la Conmemoración de los Fieles Difuntos junto con una Oración de Sanación y Ayuda a las 7PM del lunes 2 de noviembre. Por favor, considere unirse a nosotros a medida que nos reunimos para recordar a aquellos que nos han precedido en oración y comunión. La celebración comenzará con la misa a las 7 PM y continuará con refrescos ligeros después, todo al aire libre.

De cara al futuro, me complace anunciar que ofreceremos nuestra comida tradicional del Día de Acción de Gracias a finales de este mes. Más detalles sobre cómo adaptaremos esta celebración para ajustarnos a los protocolos de seguridad actuales se compartirán en las próximas semanas, pero sabemos que de hecho podremos unirnos para romper el pan y dar gracias.

La paz de Dios,
P. Kirk

Todos los Santos

Miren cuánto amor nos ha tenido el Padre, pues no sólo nos llamamos hijos de Dios, sino que lo somos.
1 Juan 3:1

SANTOS Y PECADORES

La única diferencia entre los santos y los pecadores es que los santos tuvieron un pasado y los pecadores tienen un futuro.

GOD'S WORD FOR CHILDREN

All Saints

John had a vision of angels and a great crowd of people, all worshiping at the throne of God (see Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14).

Look at the arrow on each angel.

Use the words below to write the direction in which each is pointed.

All Saints

Jesus taught us about the kinds of people who are blessed by God.

This teaching is called the Beatitudes (Matthew 5:1-12a).

Draw a line from each speech bubble on the left to the one on the right that will complete what Jesus said.

Blessed are the poor in spirit,

for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are they who mourn,

for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who hunger ... for righteousness,

for they will be comforted.

Solemnity of All Saints

Successful organizations live by strong mission statements. All Saints' Day reminds the Church of her mission: to know the love of God on earth in order to experience the fullness of God's happiness forever in heaven. The Church herself—and each one of us, her members—can use this celebration to give thanks and to renew our commitment to evangelization. If the heart of Jesus desires to unite all souls in heaven, then we must spend time every day actively praying for and serving God's people. In our words and actions, we can pour Christ's love into the world. We can be the light of the world, reminding everyone that this life is a foretaste of what is to come.

THE REWARD

God's enemy, Satan, does not want us to think of heaven, prepare for heaven, or long for heaven's peace. Satan wants us to forget about our connection to the Lord and live only for the glory we can find here and now. We feel that hellish pull whenever we grow tired of doing good, especially when no one appreciates or thanks us. We know the temptation to despair when we hear skeptics ridicule believers, especially if we can't point to convincing evidence that God provides for us that there is a life after this one. These shaky, uncomfortable experiences may come to us once in a while, or they may take root in our hearts and burden us for years. This is precisely why we must celebrate All Saints' Day with hearty gladness, because every single blessed soul in heaven is praying for us. The Communion of Saints is real, and the strength that Jesus sends to us through their prayers makes an actual difference in our lives. Just as we pray for one another here on earth, our big brothers and sisters in Christ continue to pray for us, inviting us to know and share the love of God.

Today's Readings: Rev 7:2–4, 9–14; Ps 24:1bc–2, 3–4ab, 5–6;
 1 Jn 3:1–3; Mt 5:1–12a

1º de noviembre de 2020
Solemnidad de Todos los Santos

Las organizaciones exitosas se mantienen con firmes declaraciones de su misión. El Día de Todos los Santos refresca la memoria a la Iglesia de su misión: conocer el amor de Dios en la tierra para experimentar la plenitud de la felicidad de Dios para siempre en el cielo. La Iglesia misma y cada uno de nosotros, sus miembros, puede aprovechar esta celebración para dar gracias y renovar nuestro compromiso con la evangelización. Si el corazón de Jesús desea unir a todas las almas en el cielo, entonces debemos dedicar tiempo seriamente orando por y sirviendo al pueblo de Dios. En nuestras palabras y acciones podemos derramar el amor de Cristo en el mundo. Podemos ser la luz del mundo recordando a todos que esta vida es un anticipo de lo que está por venir.

LA RECOMPENSA

El enemigo de Dios, Satanás, no quiere que pensemos en el cielo, que nos preparemos para el cielo o que anhelemos la paz celestial. Satanás quiere que nos olvidemos de nuestra relación con el Señor y vivamos sólo para la gloria que podemos encontrar aquí y ahora. Sentimos esa atracción infernal cada vez que nos cansamos de hacer el bien, especialmente cuando nadie nos aprecia o nos lo agradece. Sabemos de la tentación de la desesperación cuando escuchamos a los escépticos ridiculizar a los creyentes, especialmente si no podemos señalar pruebas convincentes de que Dios nos ofrece una vida después de esta. De vez en cuando podemos tener estas experiencias débiles e incomodas o pueden enraizarse en nuestros corazones y mortificarnos por años. Esto es precisamente por lo que debemos celebrar el Día de Todos los Santos con abundante alegría, porque cada alma bendita en el cielo está rezando por nosotros. La Comunión de los Santos es de verdad y la fuerza que Jesús nos envía a través de sus oraciones hace una diferencia verdadera en nuestras vidas. Así como oramos unos por otros aquí en la tierra, nuestros hermanos y hermanas mayores en Cristo continúan orando por nosotros, invitándonos a conocer y compartir el amor de Dios.

Lecturas de hoy: Ap 7:2–4, 9–14; Sal 24 (23):1bc–2, 3–4ab, 5–6;
