Fr. Kirk's Message October 25, 2020

Since the early weeks of the pandemic, St. Thomas Aquinas Parish has been the site of a weekly 'pop-up' food pantry for Food Share of Ventura County. We've been able to provide badly needed food to our neighbors in need, and we have attracted new volunteers from both members of the parish, and folks from the surrounding community. While the need for this additional food distribution has been regrettable, the human relationships that have developed along the way have been a blessing.

With the increased use for food distribution, our parish hall has experienced more 'wear and tear' than usual. As is typical of this community, where challenges arise, volunteers are not far behind to offer help in addressing them. Among the challenges we have faced these past months has been increased rodent activity as a side effect of storing pallets of food in the hall. Responding to this crisis, members of our community have deployed effective rodent management strategies that include both traps, and a regimen of clearing out and sanitizing areas of the hall that had become attractive areas for nesting vermin. The result has been that the hall is cleaner than I've ever seen it, with well-organized areas for storage, etc.

A huge 'thank you' to so many of you who have dedicated themselves to both the pop-up and the associated background 'grunt-work' that has been necessary to keep our doors open. I'm still longing for the day when we will be able to use the Aquinas Center for its primary purpose again, which is to gather for social activities. In the meantime, I'm very grateful we're able continue to use it to meet the needs of our neighbors.

Mensaje del P. Kirk

25 de octubre de 2020

Desde las primeras semanas de la pandemia, la Parroquia de Santo Tomás de Aquino ha sido el sitio de una despensa de alimentos semanal "pop-up" para Food Share del condado de Ventura. Hemos sido capaces de proporcionar comida muy necesaria a nuestros vecinos necesitados, y hemos atraído a nuevos voluntarios tanto de los miembros de la parroquia, como de personas de la comunidad circundante. Si bien la necesidad de esta distribución adicional de alimentos ha sido lamentable, las relaciones humanas que se han desarrollado en el camino han sido una bendición. Con el mayor uso para la distribución de alimentos, nuestro salón parroquial ha experimentado más "desgaste" de lo habitual. Como es típico de esta comunidad, donde surgen desafíos, los voluntarios no están muy atrás para ofrecer ayuda para abordarlos. Entre los desafíos a los que nos hemos enfrentado estos últimos meses se ha producido un aumento de la actividad de los roedores como efecto secundario del almacenamiento de palets de alimentos en el edificio. En respuesta a esta crisis, los miembros de nuestra comunidad han implementado estrategias eficaces de manejo de roedores que incluyen tanto rampas, como un régimen de despejar y desinfectar áreas de la sala que se habían convertido en áreas atractivas para anidar alimañas. El resultado ha sido que la sala está más limpia de lo que he visto, con áreas bien organizadas para el almacenamiento, etc. Un enorme "gracias" a tantos de ustedes que se han dedicado tanto a la ventana emergente como al fondo asociado trabajo que ha sido necesario para mantener nuestras puertas abiertas. Todavía estoy anhelando el día en que podremos volver a utilizar el Centro Aquino para su propósito principal, que es reunirnos para actividades sociales. Mientras tanto, estoy muy agradecido de que podamos seguir utilizándolo para satisfacer las necesidades de nuestros vecinos.

GOD'S WORD FOR CHILDREN

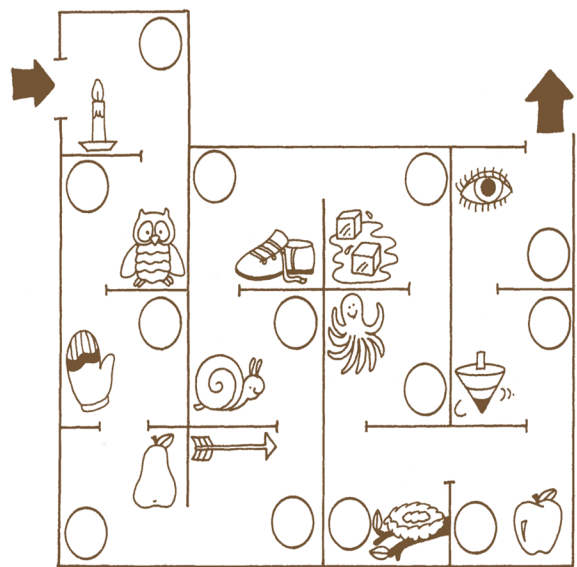

Jesus said that the first commandment was the greatest (see Matthew 22:37).
Color and cut out the puzzle pieces at the bottom.
Tape or paste them to match inside the heart shape.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Anyone who has read the Pentateuch (Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy) from beginning to end appreciates the massive influence of the law on our ancestors in faith. In fact, what Christians call the Pentateuch (Greek for “five books”), Jewish tradition calls the Torah (“teaching” or “law”). In the first five books of the Bible, there is no escaping the law, its meticulous detail and relentless regulations, decrees, and pronouncements from God to Moses and Aaron. Also common in these books, alas, are stories of God’s chosen people going astray. The predominance of the law reminds us that we are creatures with a tendency to sin; God provides the law to us beloved children to regulate our behavior and help us live more peacefully on earth.

IMITATING GOD

Laws would be entirely unnecessary if we lived perfect lives. As we know all too well, however, we often fall short of the good intentions that we cherish in our hearts. Perhaps the law would even be unnecessary if we lived alone, isolated from other people. After all, what hermit in a cave actually needs a commandment to charge no interest on a loan? But God’s design for humanity includes togetherness. And when we live together, we tend to step on each other’s toes. Thank God for laws that help us to live in community with justice and compassion.

Underlying every one of God’s laws is an eternal longing for fairness and fullness. What’s more, God’s own self—a vibrant community of Father, Son, and Spirit—reveals the deep joy of living in peace with self and neighbor. The Trinitarian nature of God—three persons in one God—astonishes us with its commitment to fruitful love. Love is gratuitous and lavish, constantly producing and giving of itself. The more generously we love God, self, and neighbor, the more we will know that, as Saint Paul says, “love is the fulfillment of the law” (Romans 13:10).

Today’s Readings: Ex 22:20–26; Ps 18:2–3, 3–4, 47, 51;
1 Thes 1:5c–10; Mt 22:34–40

Trigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Cualquiera que haya leído el Pentateuco (Génesis, Éxodo, Levítico, Números y Deuteronomio) de principio a fin aprecia la enorme influencia de la ley en nuestros antepasados en la fe. De hecho, lo que los cristianos llaman el Pentateuco (en griego “cinco libros”), la tradición judía lo llama la Torá (“enseñanza” o “ley”). En los primeros cinco libros de la Biblia no hay escapatoria de la ley, su meticuloso detalle, regulaciones implacables, decretos y pronunciamientos de Dios a Moisés y a Aarón. También algo común en estos libros, por desgracia, son las historias del pueblo elegido de Dios que se extravía. El predominio de la ley nos recuerda que somos criaturas con tendencia a pecar; Dios nos proporciona la ley a nosotros, hijos amados, para regular nuestro comportamiento y ayudarnos a vivir más pacíficamente en la tierra.

IMITANDO A DIOS

Las leyes serían totalmente innecesarias si viviéramos vidas perfectas. Sin embargo, como muy bien lo sabemos, a menudo nos quedamos cortos de las buenas intenciones que albergamos en nuestros corazones. Quizás la ley sería incluso innecesaria si viviéramos solos, aislados de otras personas. Después de todo, ¿qué ermitaño en una cueva necesita un mandamiento para no cobrar intereses en un préstamo? Pero el diseño de Dios para la humanidad incluye la unión. Y cuando vivimos juntos, tendemos a pisarnos los pies unos a otros. Gracias a Dios por las leyes que nos ayudan a vivir en comunidad con justicia y compasión.

Detrás de cada una de las leyes de Dios hay un eterno anhelo por la justicia y la plenitud. Lo que, es más, Dios mismo, una vibrante comunidad de Padre, Hijo y Espíritu, revela la profunda alegría de vivir en paz con uno mismo y con el prójimo. La naturaleza trinitaria de Dios, tres personas en un solo Dios, nos asombra con su compromiso de amor fructífero. El amor es gratuito y abundante, produciéndose constantemente y dándose a sí mismo. Cuanto amemos más generosamente a Dios, a nosotros mismos y al prójimo, más sabremos que, como san Pablo dice, “el amor es el cumplimiento de la ley” (Romanos 13:10).

Lecturas de hoy: Ex 22:20–26; Sal 18 (17):2–3, 3–4, 47, 51;
