SECOND SUNDAY OF Easter

Most of us have had the misfortune of missing something important simply by being absent, and then hearing about what happened. In today's reading, unique to John's Gospel, Thomas is the only apostle who was not around when Jesus appeared to his friends for the first time after his death and resurrection. They were frightened and grieving, not knowing what would happen to them. Remember, they found themselves to be fugitives, seemingly guilty by association with a criminal executed by government officials. Suddenly, Jesus was with them, beaming peace and mercy to his fragile followers. What joy! What a shock, too!

We will never know why Thomas had left their hiding place. All we know is that he returned to wild stories about Jesus being alive after dying a brutal death. He must have thought that the other apostles in their grief had a shared delusion of what they wished were true. When Thomas finally saw Jesus, he gave what is considered the most profound profession of faith: "My Lord and my God!" In his tender mercy, Jesus ministered to Thomas by helping him to see for himself.

WE WALK BY FAITH

But what of us? The early Christian community could only trust the words of these same apostles, the ones Thomas couldn't believe, when they preached Jesus Christ risen from the dead. Who could believe what they said? The Holy Spirit, breathed upon the disciples in that first encounter, emanated so powerfully from them that they were able to convene seemingly utopian communities of faith. Filled with "divine mercy," their lives became an evangelization to the world.

And this is how we too are sent out, like the disciples, filled with the Holy Spirit and bearing the Lord's peace and mercy to a troubled, suffering world. The wounds of Jesus are very real today in the needy and broken. May we always work to bind up those wounds wherever we find them.

Today's Readings: Acts 2:42–47; Ps 118:2–4, 13–15, 22–24;
1 Pt 1:3–9; Jn 20:19–31

Segundo Domingo de Pascua

Muchos de nosotros hemos tenido la desdicha de habernos perdido algo importante simplemente por haber estado ausente y luego escuchar acerca de lo que pasó. En las lecturas de hoy, solo lo menciona el Evangelio de Juan, Tomás es el único apóstol que no estuvo en el lugar cuando Jesús se les apareció a sus amigos la primera vez después de su muerte y resurrección. Tenían miedo y estaban de luto, sin saber que les pasaría. Recuerda, se sabían que eran fugitivos, aparentemente culpables por estar asociados con un criminal ejecutado por oficiales del gobierno romano. De repente, Jesús estaba con ellos, irradiando paz y misericordia a sus seguidores frágiles. ¡Qué alegría! ¡Qué asombro!

Nunca sabremos porqué Tomás había salido de ese escondite. Todo lo que sabemos es que regresó para escuchar una historia disparatada acerca de Jesús, que estaba vivo después de una muerte brutal. Debió de haber pensado que los otros apóstoles en su duelo tuvieron un delirio colectivo de lo que ellos deseaban fuera verdad. Cuando Tomás finalmente vio a Jesús, él da lo que es considerado la profesión más profunda de fe: "¡Señor mío y Dios mío!" En su tierna misericordia, Jesús sirvió a Tomás al ayudarle a verlo por él mismo.

CAMINAR CON FE

¿Pero qué hay de nosotros? La comunidad cristiana primitiva pudo solamente confiar en las palabras de estos mismos apóstoles, aquellos a quienes Tomás no podría creerles, cuando ellos predicaron a un Jesús resucitado de la muerte. ¿Quién podría creer lo que ellos decían? El Espíritu Santo sopló sobre los discípulos en ese primer encuentro, emanando tan poderosamente de ellos que pudieron reunir aparentemente comunidades utópicas de fe. Llenos con "la divina misericordia" sus vidas se hicieron una evangelización al mundo.

Y así es cómo nosotros también somos enviados, como los discípulos, llenos con el Espíritu Santo y llevando la paz del Señor y misericordia a un mundo que sufre y que tiene dificultades. Las heridas de Jesús son tan reales hoy con los necesitados y rotos. Que nosotros siempre trabajemos para unir esas heridas donde quiera que nos encontremos.

You expired, O Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls and an ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world.
O Fount of Life,
unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the whole world

O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus
as a fount of mercy for us,
I trust in You.
Amen.

Espiraste, Jesús,
pero Tu muerte hizo brotar un manantial de vida para las almas y el océano
de Tu misericordia inundó todo el mundo.
Oh, Fuente de Vida, insondable misericordia divina, anega el mundo entero derramando sobre nosotros hasta Tu última gota de sangre.
Oh, Sangre y Agua que brotaste del Corazón de Jesús, manantial de misericordia para nosotros,
en Ti confío.
Amén.

Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy)

After his resurrection Jesus appeared twice to his disciples in a locked room. Cross out the speech bubbles that do not tell what he said during these visits. You can read the story in your Bible at John 20:19–31.

Receive the Holy Spirit.

Do not be unbelieving, but believe.

You're on your own.

Try to find some peace.

Peace be with you.

See my hands.

It's O.K. if you don't believe.
