Fr. Kirks Message

July 12, 2020

It's been about a year since I arrived at St. Thomas Aquinas to take up my new assignment as your pastor. I find myself this week reflecting on the past year and thinking about the future. Last September Bishop Barron came to preside at my Mass of Installation, and two weeks later the St. Thomas community gathered for a pot-luck luncheon to welcome me. I was both humbled and grateful for the warm welcome you all gave me. In October we celebrated Halloween with a family friendly event that included 'trunk-or-treating' in the safety of our parking lot and food, fun and games in the Aquinas Center. In November we were joined by the entire student body and staff of Villanova Preparatory School to celebrate the Feast of All Saints, and we remembered our faithful departed with a time-honored celebration of the Feast of All Souls. December brought the Advent and Christmas seasons, and in January we again pooled our resources to celebrate a community meal to officially mark the end of our 100-year anniversary as a parish. In February both our kids and catechists traveled to Anaheim for the Religious Education Congress, and Villanova Prep again joined us for a combined liturgy, this time for our celebration of Ash Wednesday and the beginning of the holy season of Lent. Lenten soup suppers returned with enthusiastic participation from the community. We celebrated an evening Penance Service at the beginning of March, and preparations were well under way for both our annual St. Patrick's Day dinner dance and the Parish Festival when the Covid 19 Virus took over our lives and our schedules. The church was closed for public worship and we here on the parish staff scrambled to implement live-streamed Masses as quickly as possible. We celebrated Holy Week and the Easter Triduum virtually. Even now with the church reopened to the public we are facing the daily challenge of operating within the constraints of protocols that are intended to keep everyone safe, but that many find are distracting us from our traditional way of worshiping. Through it all I have encountered a wonderful sense of support and community from you all, and I have been made to feel welcome. To say it's been an unusual year is certainly an understatement. For my part, I am so impressed at this community's response to the recent adversity we've all experienced that I can't help but feel excited to think about what we will be able to accomplish together when the temporary limitations we're experiencing now begin to lift!

God's peace,
Fr. Kirk

Mensaje del P. Kirks

12 de julio de 2020

Ha pasado un año desde que llegué a Santo Tomás de Aquino para asumir mi nueva misión como su pastor. Me encuentro esta semana reflexionando sobre el año pasado y pensando en el futuro. El pasado mes de septiembre, el obispo Barron vino a presidir mi misa de instalación, y dos semanas más tarde la comunidad de Santo Tomás se reunió para un almuerzo de pot-suerte para darme la bienvenida. Me sentí humilde y agradecido por la cálida bienvenida que me dieron. En octubre celebramos Halloween con un evento familiar que incluyó "trunk-or-treating" en la seguridad de nuestro estacionamiento y comida, diversión y juegos en el Aquinas Center. En noviembre nos unieron todo el cuerpo estudiantil y el personal de la Villanova Preparatory School para celebrar la fiesta de todos los santos, y recordamos a nuestros fieles que partieron con una celebración de la Fiesta de Todas las Almas. Diciembre trajo las temporadas de Adviento y Navidad, y en enero volvimos a agrupar nuestros recursos para celebrar una comida comunitaria para marcar oficialmente el final de nuestro 100 aniversario como parroquia. En febrero, tanto nuestros jóvenes como catequistas viajaron a Anaheim para el Congreso de Educación Religiosa, y Villanova Prep se unió de nuevo a nosotros para una liturgia combinada, esta vez para nuestra celebración del Miércoles de Ceniza y el comienzo del tiempo santo de Cuaresma. Las cenas de sopa de cuaresma regresaron con la entusiasta participación de la comunidad. Celebramos un Servicio de Penitencia por la noche a principios de marzo, y los preparativos estaban en marcha tanto para nuestro baile anual del Día de San Patricio como para el Festival Parroquial cuando el Virus Covid 19 se apoderó de nuestras vidas y nuestros horarios. La iglesia fue cerrada para el culto público y nosotros aquí en el personal de la parroquia se apresuró a implementar misas en vivo tan pronto como sea posible. Celebramos virtualmente la Semana Santa y el Triduo Pascual. Incluso ahora, con la iglesia reabierto al público, nos enfrentamos al desafío diario de operar dentro de las limitaciones de los protocolos que están destinados a mantener a todos a salvo, pero que muchos encuentran nos están distrayendo de nuestra forma tradicional de adorar. A través de todo esto he encontrado un maravilloso sentido de apoyo y comunidad de todos ustedes, y me han hecho sentir bienvenido. Decir que ha sido un año inusual es ciertamente un eufemismo. Por mi parte, estoy tan impresionado por la respuesta de esta comunidad a la adversidad reciente que todos hemos experimentado que no puedo evitar sentirme emocionado de pensar en lo que seremos capaces de lograr juntos cuando las limitaciones temporales que estamos experimentando ahora comienzan a levantar! La paz de Dios, P. Kirk

GOD'S WORD FOR CHILDREN

Jesus wants us to hear, understand, and live by his words. He told a parable about seeds to explain this (Matthew 13:1-23). Use these four words to fill in the blanks that help tell Jesus' story.

A farmer threw out seeds. Some of it was eaten by _____. Some of it was burned by the _____. Some of it was choked by _____. But some of the seeds fell on rich soil and grew lots of _____!

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In Isaiah 55:10-11 we learn that there is an order to things. Number the sentences in each row from 1 to 3 to show the correct sequence of events. Underline the sentence that tells where we have an important part to play.

	It spins itself into a cocoon.	A caterpillar eats and eats.	It comes out as a beautiful butterfly.
	A tiny baby girl is born.	She becomes a woman.	She grows to be bigger and bigger.
	Plants grow in the soil and provide us with food.	They water the Earth so it is fertile and ready for seeds.	The rain and snow come down from heaven.
	The word of God comes from God's mouth.	We hear it and do what is right.	God's will is done.

Prayer for Doctors and Nurses

O merciful Father, who have wonderfully fashioned man in your own image, and have made his body to be a temple of the Holy Spirit, sanctify, we pray you, our doctors and nurses and all those whom you have called to study and practice the arts of healing the sick and the prevention of disease and pain. Strengthen them in body and soul, and bless their work, that they may give comfort to those for whose salvation your Son became Man, lived on this earth, healed the sick, and suffered and died on the Cross. Amen.

Oración por Médicos y Enfermeras

Oh Padre misericordioso, que ha creado maravillosamente al hombre a su propia imagen, y ha hecho que su cuerpo sea un templo del Espíritu Santo, santifica, os rogamos a vosotros, a nuestros médicos y enfermeras y a todos aquellos a quienes habéis llamado a estudiar y practicar las artes de sanar a los enfermos y a la prevención de enfermedades y dolores. Fortalecerlos en cuerpo y alma, y bendecir su obra, para que den consuelo a aquellos por cuya salvación su Hijo se hizo Hombre, vivió en esta tierra, sanó a los enfermos, sufrió y murió en la Cruz. Amén.
