THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Mend your ways, encourage one another,
agree with one another, live in peace,
and the God of love and peace
will be with you.

God so loved the world
that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.

At moments in our lives we may wonder how we know who God is or what God is like. Today's readings help us to feel secure in placing our faith in God and being assured of God's unfailing love. When Moses went up the mountain as the Lord had commanded him, God powerfully described himself, "The Lord, the Lord, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." Jesus shows us the depths of this life of God. He came not to condemn the world but to save it. As people in relationship with God, we often fail. We walk away from God's ways, fall into sinfulness, and then, with the Lord's grace, come to our senses and return. God's words to Moses and the very life of Jesus show us that when we do so, we can still rely on God's mercy and kindness, because love is God's very nature.

CALLED TO BE LIKE GOD

We might consider this testimony to the life and love of God and think to ourselves, so what? Knowing that God loves us is reassuring, and may help us place our faith and trust in the Lord, but something more naturally follows—as followers of Jesus, we are called to become more like him. When others look at us, they should be able to say that we are "merciful and gracious, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." This gets at the heart of what it means to be a Christian. Our daily decisions, words, and actions are to reflect the merciful graciousness of God. We are able to do this through the indwelling power and presence of the Holy Spirit. In what ways are you becoming more Christ-like? May the grace of the Lord, love of God, and fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you as you renew your commitment to show and share God's kindness to others!

MINISTRIES IN NEED OF YOU

When we are able to come together, each of our ministries are in need of new people who can bring their time and talent; ideas and energy. Below is an example of three different types of Ministries. Perhaps you will see a place for you. Every person who is now or has been involved in a Ministry will tell you they get more out of participating than they have given.

LAITY

This is a general term that describes all of us who are not clergy. Laity in Greek is laos, "The people". Vatican II recaptured the original meaning of the word, reminding us that laity is all the people of God who are called through baptism to transform the world.

APOSTOLATE

This word comes from apostle, as in one who is sent by Jesus to proclaim the Gospel...by word and deed. Lay Apostolate is the work most of the laity do everyday to transform the world and spread the love of Jesus. This is done through work as mothers, fathers, teachers, farmers, doctors, clerks, students, our everyday life.

LAY MINISTRY

This is used as a general term referring to lay activity in the Church. Vatican II renewed these ministerial roles. These ministries are, volunteer positions, extraordinary ministers, lectors, catechist, acolyte, and cantor to name a few. It also includes those who have a more professional role in the church like youth minister, director of Religious Education and RCIA coordinator.

MINISTERIOS QUE LO NECESITAN

Cuando somos capaces de unirnos, cada uno de nuestros ministerios necesita nuevas personas que puedan aportar su tiempo y talento; Ideas y energía. A continuación se muestra un ejemplo de tres tipos diferentes de Ministres. Tal vez usted verá un lugar para usted. Cada persona que está ahora o ha estado involucrada en un ministerio le dirá que obtienen más de lo que han dado.

LAICADO

Este es un término general que describe a todos los que no somos clérigos. Laicos en griego es laos, "El pueblo". El Vaticano II recapturó el significado original de la palabra, Recordándonos que el laicado es todo el pueblo de Dios que es llamado por el bautismo a transformar

APOSTOLADO

Esta palabra viene del apóstol, como en quien es enviado por Jesús para proclamar el Evangelio ... por palabra y obra. El Apostolado de los Laicos es la obra que la mayoría de los laicos hacen todos los días para transformar el mundo y difundir el amor de Jesús. Esto se hace a través del trabajo como madres, padres, maestros, agricultores, médicos, empleados, estudiantes, nuestra vida cotidiana.

MINISTERIO LAICO

Se usa como un término general que se refiere a la actividad laica en la Iglesia. El Vaticano II renovó estos papeles ministeriales. Estos ministerios son, voluntarios, ministros extraordinarios, lectores, catequistas, acólitos y cantores, por nombrar algunos. También incluye a aquellos que tienen más Papel de la profesión en la iglesia como ministro de la juventud, Director de Educación Religiosa y

ON A SUMMER'S DAY

Rest is not idleness, and to lie sometimes on the grass under trees on a summer's day, listening to the murmur of the water, or watching the clouds float across the sky, is by no means a waste of time.

—John Lubbock

UN DÍA EN VERANO

El descanso no es ser ocioso y cuando a veces te acostares sobre el pasto debajo de los árboles en un día de verano, escuchando el murmullo del agua o viendo las nubes en lo alto de cielo, eso de ninguna manera es perder el tiempo.

—John Lubbock
