Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Fr. Kirks Message
June 21, 2020

The year 2020 is likely to be a memorable one for many reasons. To be sure the Covid 19 virus has given us all new focus on things that we have previously taken for granted. One example is the 'virtual' graduation ceremony for my nephew, who graduated from high school last week. He and all his classmates, their parents and families, and the faculty of the school gathered online for a two-hour celebration. Amazing! Another example has been the civil unrest and call to dialogue around racial injustice in our nation. To be sure we have seen similar unrest in the past, yet somehow the call to dialogue seems more urgent today, and many appear to be taking the invitation to listen seriously.

Our way of being 'church' has been challenged, forcing us to learn how to livestream our masses, and then to gather with social distancing and safety protocols in place. All of these things invite us to a mindfulness that might not otherwise be demanded. I hope and pray that our reflections on the times we are living in yield the fruit of an even stronger and more confident faith in God.

This weekend we celebrate the secular holiday of Father's Day. While the celebrations may look different this year, I pray the spirit remains strong. May God bless all fathers today, those who are the heads of traditional families to be sure, but also all the men out there who inhabit the role of 'father' in nontraditional ways...who extend the love of a father to corners of our communities that otherwise might not enjoy a fathers love. To all of you...Happy Father's Day.

Mensaje del P. Kirks
21 de junio de 2020

El año 2020 es probable que sea memorable por muchas razones. Es cierto que el virus Covid 19 nos ha dado a todos un nuevo enfoque en las cosas que hemos dado previamente por sentado. Un ejemplo es la ceremonia de graduación "virtual" para mi sobrino, que se graduó de la escuela secundaria la semana pasada. El y todos sus compañeros de clase, sus padres y familias, y la facultad de la escuela se reunieron en línea para una celebración de dos horas. ¡Increíble! Otro ejemplo ha sido el malestar civil y el llamado al diálogo en torno a la injusticia racial en nuestra nación. Sin duda, hemos visto disturbios similares en el pasado, pero de alguna manera el llamado al diálogo parece más urgente hoy en día, y muchos parecen estar tomando la invitación a escuchar en serio. Nuestra forma de ser 'iglesia' ha sido desafiada, obligándonos a aprender a vivir a través de nuestras masas, y luego a reunirnos con los protocolos sociales de distanciamiento y seguridad en su lugar. Todas estas cosas nos invitan a una atención plena que de otra manera no se exigiría.

Espero y ruego que nuestras reflexiones sobre los tiempos en los que vivimos produzcan el fruto de una fe aún más fuerte y segura de Dios. Este fin de semana celebramos la fiesta secular del Día del Padre. Si bien las celebraciones pueden parecer diferentes este año, ruego que el espíritu siga siendo fuerte. Que Dios bendiga a todos los padres de hoy, a los que son las cabezas de las familias tradicionales para estar seguros, pero también a todos los hombres que habitan el papel de "padre" de maneras no tradicionales... que extienden el amor de un padre a los rincones de nuestras comunidades que de otra manera no podrían disfrutar de un amor de los padres. A todos ustedes... Feliz Día del Padre.

MINISTRIES IN NEED OF YOU

When we are able to come together, each of our ministries are in need of new people who can bring their time and talent; ideas and energy. Below is an example of three different types of Ministries. Perhaps you will see a place for you. Every person who is now or has been involved in a Ministry will tell you they get more out of participating than they have given.

LAITY

This is a general term that describes all of us who are not clergy. Laity in Greek is laos, "The people". Vatican II recaptured the original meaning of the word, reminding us that laity is all the people of God who are called through baptism to transform the world.

APOSTOLATE

This word comes from apostle, as in one who is sent by Jesus to proclaim the Gospel...by word and deed. Lay Apostolate is the work most of the laity do everyday to transform the world and spread the love of Jesus. This is done through work as mothers, fathers, teachers, farmers, doctors, clerks, students, our everyday life.

LAY MINISTRY

This is used as a general term referring to lay activity in the Church. Vatican II renewed these ministerial roles. These ministries are, volunteer positions, extraordinary ministers, lectors, catechist, acolyte, and cantor to name a few. It also includes those who have a more professional role in the church like youth minister, director of Religious Education and RCIA coordinator.

A continuación se muestra un ejemplo de tres tipos diferentes de Ministerios. Tal vez usted verá un lugar para usted. Cada persona que está ahora o ha estado involucrada en un ministerio le dirá que obtienen más de lo que han dado.

LAICADO

Este es un término general que describe a todos los que no somos clérigos. Laicos en griego es laos, "El pueblo". El Vaticano II recapturó el significado original de la palabra, Recordándonos que el laicado es todo el pueblo de Dios que es llamado por el bautismo a transformar

APOSTOLADO

Esta palabra viene del apóstol, como en quien es enviado por Jesús para proclamar el Evangelio ... por palabra y obra. El Apostolado de los Laicos es la obra que la mayoría de los laicos hacen todos los días para transformar el mundo y difundir el amor de Jesús. Esto se hace a través del trabajo como madres, padres, maestros, agricultores, médicos, empleados, estudiantes, nuestra vida cotidiana.
